Treasurer

A minimum of Two Ordinary Committee Members from Affiliated Society shall be elected at the annual general meeting.

- (2) Names for the Ordinary Committee Members in paragraph (1) shall be proposed and seconded and election will be by a simple majority vote of the members at the annual general meeting. All the office-bearers shall be eligible for re-election every 2 years.
- (3) The function of the Committee is to organize and supervise the day-to-day activities of the Society and to make decisions on matters affecting its running within the general policy laid down by the general meeting. The Committee shall not act contrary to the expressed wishes of the general meeting without prior reference to it and shall always remain subordinate to the general meeting. It shall furnish a report to each annual general meeting on its activities during the previous year.
- (4) The Committee shall meet physically or virtually at least once every six months. A fourteen days' notice of each meeting shall be given to the members. The President acting alone, or not less than three of its members acting together may call for a meeting of the Committee to be held at any time. At least three quarters of the Committee members must be present physically or virtually for its proceedings to be valid and to constitute a quorum.
- (5) Where any urgent matter requiring the approval of the Committee arises and it is not possible to convene a meeting, the Secretary may obtain such approval by means of a circular letter or virtual meeting. The following conditions must be fulfilled before a decision of the Committee is deemed to have been obtained:-

- (a) The issue must be clearly set out in the circular or virtual meeting and forwarded to all members of the committee;
- (b) At least three quarters of the members of the Committee must indicate whether they are in favour or against the proposal; and
- (c) The decision must be by a majority vote.

Any decision obtained by circular letter or virtual meeting shall be reported by the Secretary to the next Committee meeting and recorded in the minutes thereof.

- (6) Any member of the Committee who fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the committee without satisfactory explanation shall be deemed to have resigned from the Committee.
- (7) In the event of the death or resignation of a member of the Committee, the Committee shall have the power to co-opt any other member of the society to fill the vacancy until the next election of office-bearers.
- (8) The Committee shall give instructions to the Secretary and other officers for the conduct of the affairs of the Society. It may appoint such officers and such staff as it deems necessary. It may suspend or dismiss any officers or member of the staff for neglect of duty, dishonesty, incompetence, refusal to carry out the decisions of the Committee, or for any other reason which it deems good and sufficient in the interest of the Society.
- (9) The Committee may appoint any sub-committee for any purpose arising out of or connected with any of the duties, functions and aims laid down under the rules. Any members can become members of these sub-committee.

10. Duties of Office-Bearers

- (1) The President shall during his term of office preside at all general meetings, all meetings of the committee and shall be responsible for the proper conduct of all such meetings. He shall have the casting vote and shall sign the minutes of each meeting at the time they are approved. He shall, in conjunction with the Secretary and Treasurer sign all cheques on behalf of the Society.
- (2) The Vice-president shall deputize for the President during the latter's absence.
- (3) The Secretary shall conduct the business of the Society in accordance with the rules, and shall carry out the instructions of the general meeting and of the Committee. He shall be responsible for conducting all correspondence and keeping all books, documents and paper except the accounts and financial records. He shall attend all meetings, and record all proceedings. He shall keep a membership register consisting of details such as name, identity card number, date and place of birth, occupation, name and address of employer and residential address. He shall in conjunction with the President and the Treasurer, sign all cheques on behalf of Society. He shall file annual returns within 60 days from the date of the annual general meeting to the Registrar of Societies.

- (4) The Assistant Secretary shall assist the Secretary in carrying out his duties and shall act for him in his absence.
- (5) The Treasurer shall be responsible for the finances of the Society. He shall keep accounts of all its financial transactions and shall be responsible for their correctness. He shall in conjunction with the President and the Secretary sign all cheques on behalf of the Society.
- (6) The Ordinary Committee Members shall carry out such duty as directed by the President or the Committee.

11. Financial Provisions

- (1) Subject to the following provisions in this rules, the funds of the Society may be expended for the purpose necessary for the carrying out of its objectives, including the expenses of its office-bearers and paid staff, and the audit of its accounts, but they shall on no account be used to pay the fine of any member who may be convicted in a court of law.
- (2) The Treasurer may hold a petty cash advance not exceeding RM 5,000 (Ringgit Malaysia: Five Thousand Only) at any one time. All money in excess of this sum shall within seven days of receipt be deposited in a bank approved by the Committee. The bank account shall be in the name of the Society.
- (3) All cheques or withdrawal notices on the Society's account shall be signed jointly by the President, and the Secretary or Treasurer. In the absence of the President, the Secretary or the Treasurer for a long period, the Committee shall appoint one of its members to sign in his place.
- (4) Expenditure exceeding RM 50,001 (Ringgit Malaysia: Fifty Thousand And One Only) at any one time requires prior sanction of the Committee. Expenditure less than RM 50,000 (Ringgit Malaysia: Fifty Thousand Only) at any one time may be incurred by the President together with the Secretary or the Treasurer.
- (5) As soon as possible after the end of each financial year, a statement of receipts and payments and a balance sheet for the year shall be prepared by the Treasurer and audited by the Auditors appointed under the rule 12. The audited accounts shall be submitted for the approval of the next annual general meeting, and copies shall be made available at the registered place of business of the Society for the perusal of members.
- (6) The financial year of the Society shall commence on the 1st January and end on the 31st December every year.

12. Auditors

- (1) Two persons, who shall not be office-bearers of the Society, shall be appointed, by the annual general meeting as Honorary Auditors. They shall hold office for one year and may be reappointed.
- (2) The Auditors shall be required to audit the accounts of the Society for the year, and to prepare a report or certificate for the annual general meeting. They may also be required by the President to audit the accounts of the Society for any period within their tenure of office, at any date, and to make a report to the Committee.

13. Trustee

- (1) Three Trustees, who must be over 21 years of age, shall be appointed at the annual general meeting and shall hold office during the pleasure of the society. They shall be vested in them all immovable properties whatsoever belonging to the Society upon execution of a Deed of Trust.
- (2) The Trustees shall not sell, withdraw or transfer any of the properties of the Society without the consent and authority of a general meeting of members.
- (3) A Trustee may be removed from office by a general meeting on the grounds that, owing to ill health, unsoundness of mind, absence from the country or for any other reasons, he is unable to perform his duties or unable to do so satisfactorily. In the event of the death, resignation or removal of a trustee the vacancy shall be filled by a new Trustee appointed by a general meeting.

14. Interpretation

- (1) Between annual general meetings the committee shall interpret the rules of the Society and when necessary, determine any point on which the rules are silent.
- (2) Except where they are contrary to or inconsistent with the policy previously laid down by the general meeting, the decisions of the Committee shall be binding on all members of the Society unless and until countermanded by a resolution of a general meeting.

15. Advisor / Patron

The Committee shall if it deems fit and necessary appoint qualified persons to be the Advisor or Patron of the Society. The person appointed must give his consent in writing.
